I Like Cats

Anushka Ravishankar & Various Artists

Fat cats, brat cats, grinning cats, wiggled cats, cats with scowls and cats with jowls... I Like Cats emerges from the brushstrokes of the best-known tribal artists of India. Featuring a screen-printed cover and endsheet, this book features a gallery of irresistible feline characters across a variety of Indian tribal art traditions.

This is a book for that will delight art lovers, cat lovers and artsy cat lovers!

Written by Anushka Ravishankar

Carrying on in the comic verse tradition, the witty and jubilant poetry-tales of Indian writer Anushka Ravishankar are internationally acclaimed, widely translated, and honoured with innumerable awards. Anushka has authored over eighteen books and this verse for all ages is sure to be another hit.

Art by various artists from the finest tribal and folk traditions from across India.

Special features

- International award-winning author, Anushka Ravishankar, writes another charming comic verse, this time about cats, perfect for all ages.
- A stunning handmade screen-printed book featuring original and rich Indian and tribal folk art spanning several traditions by India's most talented traditional artists.
- The ideal gift for cat lovers!

'I Like Cats is not just a picture book with illustrations to linger over; it serves as a showcase for folk artists from Worli, Patua, Meena, Gond and other tribes across India. Hand-bound, with a silk-screened hardcover and a frameable print inside, this book is more of a minicoffee table jewel than a quick read to be tossed aside by grubby (nonfeline) paws.'
