

No.
A seal doesn't smile.

A seal can bark and flap its flippers when it sees another seal.

Does a mandrill smile?

Not exactly.

This mandrill's expression is really more snarl than smile. He is opening his mouth and showing his teeth to show he is angry.

Does a coyote smile?

Not really.

Coyotes use facial expressions to communicate,
but they do not smile.

Does a chimp smile?
